

Announcement

The David and Jayne Paterson Scholarships Tenable at the University of Oxford

REGULATIONS

For 2010, two scholarships tenable at the University of Oxford will be awarded under The David and Jayne Paterson Educational Trust. The following regulations will apply to these scholarships:

1. The scholarships will be known as The David and Jayne Paterson Scholarships.
2. Each scholarship of £7,500 will be tenable for one year and will be paid directly to the University of Oxford towards part of the total College and University fees.
3. The scholarships will be awarded to ethnic Chinese who have completed the majority of their formal education in the People's Republic of China, and who have graduated from the China University of Political Science and Law ("CUPL"). Applicants will be graduates of not more than four years standing who intend to return to the People's Republic of China to pursue a career in the legal profession.

The scholarships will be awarded to students who will have confirmed places for the MJur programme at the University of Oxford.

4. If no candidates are judged to be of sufficient merit, no awards will be made.

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

1. Applications are now invited for the scholarships to be awarded in the academic year 2010/2011.
2. Applicants should apply for a place at the Oxford University through the normal admissions process. Deadline for the MJur programme is 22 January 2010.
3. More information can be obtained from the following website:
http://www.ox.ac.uk/admissions/postgraduate_courses/index.html
4. The scholarships will be awarded by the Trustees of the David and Jayne Paterson Educational Trust.