The David and Jayne Paterson Scholarship

The David and Jayne Paterson Educational Trust (the “Trust”) is now seeking applications from graduates who wish to study law at Oriel College, Oxford University for the academic year commencing in 2009.

Criteria for Selection:

We are seeking students who can show an excellent academic performance combined with the personal qualities and character which demonstrate leadership and fellowship. We may also take into consideration achievements in non-curricular activities and their level of community involvement.

A fluent command of the English language (both written and spoken) is absolutely essential. It is mandatory for the candidates to have either an acceptable TOEFL or IELTS qualification, i.e.

- TOEFL - paper based: overall score of 600, with a Test of Written English score of 5.5 or computer based: overall score of 250, with Test of Written English score of 5.5 or internet based: overall score of 100
- IELTS -
overall score of 7.0 (with at least 7.0 in each of the four components)

For detailed English language requirements, please visit:

It is expected that two Scholarships will be awarded and each Scholarship will be:

- tenable at Oriel College at Oxford for a degree course in law;
- for a period of 3 years;
- paid directly to Oriel College towards the total College and University fees which are currently approximately £16,000 per annum. Other costs will be for the student's own account. These are estimated to be about £8,000 – £10,000 per annum depending upon the individual's own expenses.); and
- conditional upon the candidates being accepted for and taking up a place at Oriel, with the College itself having absolute discretion in the acceptance of candidates.

Applicants must be:

- under 30 years of age and in a satisfactory state of health;
- resident in the People's Republic of China;
- graduates of the China University of Political Science and Law (“CUPL”); and
- fluent in the English language.
